INDEX

TO THE

SECOND VOLUME OF THE MUSICAL MAGAZINE.

Addison, his opinion concerning the powers of music, 149
Avison suggests an arrangement of the elements of vocal science, 4
Alison, his opinions concerning the powers of music, 155, 265
Albert (Signor), 375
Anfossi, 37
Angels ever bright and fair, 401
Ancient school, 60
Ancient and modern music compared, 139
Ancient Concert, 378
Argyll Rooms, 385
Attwood's Qual Silenzio, 345; the Waves retreating from the Shore, 360
Attainments of Musicians, 415
Bach (John Sebastian), his Life, by Forkel, 382
Battle sinfonia, 389
Bartleman (Mr.) 260
Ballads, their progress, 233
Bertoni, 451
Beattie (Dr.) his opinions concerning the powers of music, 152
Braham (Mr.) lowered the effect of singing, 2, 261; has lost much of his delicacy, 3
Bianchi's (F.) the composer, M.S. 22; second extract, 172; third, 296; fourth, 434
Bianchi (the singer), 375
Billington (Mrs.) lowered the effects of singing, 2; formed in Italy, 3
Bishop, his Comedy of Errors, 347
Bochsa, his Quick March, 125; his works, 221; his Donald, 346; his Slowly wears the Day, Love, 370; his performance, 379
Burke, his opinion concerning the powers of music, 151
Burrowes, his Caledonian Airs, 243; For thee, 363; Love in Winter, 363; Anacreontic Airs, 366
Calzabigi, 450
Card's Jeanie's Bawbie, 358
Catalani lowered the effects of singing, 2
Catch Club, 324
Cathedral music, 88
Ceccina, La Buona Figliuola, 34
Chapel music in London, 390
Chamber music, 131
City concerts, 384
Chesterfield (Lord), 7, 9, 10
Consecutive octaves, opinions of Rameau, Kollman, and Crotch concerning, 167
Corri (Domenico), quotation from his Singer's Preceptor, 137; Corri (Miss), memoir of, 317; Corri (Miss Rosalie), 388
Conservatories, 184.
Choron, Principes de Composition, 200; on the schools, 273
Clementi, his introductory works, 101; memoir of, 308; his number of Operatic Airs, 344; his opera 2, the basis of Cramer's grand sonata, 353; his sonata, 491
Clarke (Dr.) his canzonetta, 360
Crotch (Dr.) 265
Composition and counterpoint, 425
Criticism of The Times on Ambrogetti, 3
Clifton, his If Music be the Food of Love, 370
Coggins's divertimento from Steibelt's air, 358
Covent-garden theatre, 377
Cianchettini Pio, 357
Cramer (J.B.) his introductory works, 101; his air by Rousseau, Mozart's air, and Midsummer-day, 253
Composition, progress of in England, 389; in two parts, 429; in three, 431; in four, 432; in five, 432
Concerto players in London, 391
Corancez, 456
Counter-tenor singing, remarks on, 468
Clavi-harpe, 518
Cherubini, his Les abercerages, 508
Comic opera, Italian structure of, 67; French, 512; singers of, 512
Dedication, rage for, 96
Dickons (Mrs.) 3
Doyle's Ballads, 231
Dramatic Airs, 247
Drury-lane theatre, 377
Durante, 33
Davy's Is my Love then flown, 505
De Pinna's Hail! beauteous Stranger, 505
Elements of vocal science, 1, 131, 255, 393
Emdin's Dearest Ellen awake, 363
English Opera wants to be improved, 348
Flute, compositions for, 83
France, school of, 284
Franklin's (Dr.) ideas concerning Scotch music, 243
Frederick the Great, his reception of Bach, 386
Gardiner's Sacred Melodies, 86
Germany, school of, 280
Giardini, anecdote of, 111

Glee Club, 328
Gossec, 40
Glee writers, list of English, 110
Gluck, memoir of, 448—507
Greek music, 23
Grassini, 469
Gretry, 40; anecdote of, 121
Guitars, by Le Jeune, 518
Guttman, his Carnival and Sonatas, 504
Guymard, 43
Haydn, observations on, 61; his On Thee each living soul awaits, 401; his She never told her Love, 402
Harrison, 260, 261
Harris's Adieu, loved Youth, 360
Hawes's Banks of Allan Water, 106
Hewitt's new theory of music, 127
Holder's Sonata, La Petite Sonata, Divertimento and Air from Rosina, 369
Hooker, his opinion of musical harmony, 86
Horsley, his glees, 107; his letter on Hewitt's new theory, 171
Howell's Auxiliary Lessons, Practical Instructions, Lessons in the Major and Minor Keys, 99
Incledon, 377
Il Barbiere di Siviglia, 66
In sweetest Harmony, 404
Intonation, 393
Influence of speech and music, reciprocal, 399
Intervals, application of, 399
Italian duets before Piccini, 36
Italian opera at Paris, 69
Italy, school of, 274
Jomelli, anecdote of, 36
Kalkbrenner, his Biondina in Gondoletta, 97; his number of Operatic Airs, 343; his three Songs and Tre Canzonette Italiane, 368; his Hail, George the Fourth, 371; his La Solitudine—his Pollacca Rondo, 372; his Dramatic Sonata, 501
Kames (Lord), his opinion concerning the powers of music, 152
Kiallmark, his Valse a l'Hongroise, 85; his Waters of Ellé, 228; his Irish Melody, 504; his Maiden wrap thy Mantle round thee, 505
King, his Sweet are the stolen Hours of Love, 363
King's theatre, 375
Kitchiner (Dr.) his Ivanhoe, 347
Klose, his My native Land good Night, 358
Knapton, his There be none of Beauty's Daughters, 105; his When we two parted, 499; his See where the falling day, 499
Knyvett (W.) memoir of, 472
Lanza's Elements of Singing abridged, 212; his Tell me ye little melancholy tears, 363
Latour, his Air from Tarare, his Introduction and Waltz, 229; his Le Petit Tambour, 497
Leo anecdote of, 32
Little's Guaracha, with variations, 96; Les Belles Bergeres, 251
Lihu Demoiselles de, 469
Liverati's Gastone e Bayardo, 376
Lagroscino, 34, 35
Lord to thee, 400
Lully, 41, 511
Malnotti Madame Adelaide, 488
Mara, could maintain a steady tone during motion, 6; her last appearance 379
Martin (M.) 513
Mason, his Remarks on the Music of the Church, 88
Marchand, his intended contest with Bach, 335
Marmontel, 39.
Martini Padre (I. B.) memoir of, 172; his opinion of Gluck, 450
Mehul, his Les Amazones, 509
Meves's L'Aline, 84
Monsigny, 40, 516
Metzler's Polonoise, 81
Middle School, 61
Modern School, 61
Monro's Introduction, 99
Moore's Love thee, 104; National airs, 233; How happy once, 363
Mozart, 265, arranged airs of, 361
Music, as a pursuit for men, 7; Objections answered, 9, 10, 11
Musical Student, No. 2, 60
Musical publications; style of English and French compared, 95
Muller's grand sonata, 358
Neate, 384
National Airs second number of, 233
Novello's collection of Masses, 15
O'Moran (Mrs.) her emblem of love, 370
Opera singers (French), 508
Operatic Airs, 342
Oratorios, 387
Organists in London, 391
Organs on their construction, 418
Pacchierotti, 259
Paer's Pastorale, Il tempio d'Armonia, and Notturni, 92
Parke, his Annot Lyle, 370
Philharmonic Concerts, 383
Phillidor, 40
Phillips, 135
Philosophy of musical composition, 148, 264, 398
Piccini, memoir of, 32
Piano fortes, on their construction, 418
Pious Orgies, 402
Poetry of part songs, 55, 158
Pope's chapel, 469
Pollini's Voi che sapete, 251
Portamento, 260
Portraits of Foreign Composers, 341
Povey (Miss), 388
Proportions, treatise on, 299, 434
Proper sound of the in singing, 408
Qualities of a stage singer, 5
Rameau, 41
Ranz des vaches, 53
Rawlings's Donne L'amore, 358
Rede (Miss), her Maid of Devon, 370
Roland, 42
Rossini, his Il Barbiere di Siviglia, 66; his Cenerentola, 376; his Tancredi, 477
Rousseau, 485